The Arbitrator or Arbitrators so appointed under this Schedule shall hold the arbitration proceedings.
The Arbitrator, Arbitrators or Umpire, as the case may be shall give reasoned award in respect of each item of disputes, which shall be final and binding on both the parties.

In case during the arbitration proceedings, the parties mutually settle, compromise or compound their dispute or difference, the reference to arbitration and the appointment of the Arbitrator or Arbitrators, or Umpire, as the case may be, shall be deemed to have been revoked and the arbitration proceeding shall stand withdrawn or terminated with effect from the date on which the parties file a joint memorandum of settlement thereof with the Arbitrator or Arbitrators or the Umpire, as the case may be.

Governing Law: The contract shall be interpreted in accordance with the laws of the Government of India.

18.1 Inspection:

The Bank shall have the right to inspect duties being performed by the personnel, and the quality of materials used, to ensure that the Contractor is effectively carrying out the obligations under the Maintenance Contract. All questions relating to the performance of the obligations under the Maintenance Contract, and all the disputes and differences which shall arise either during or after the agreement period or other matters arising out of or relating to this agreement or payment to be made in pursuance thereof shall be decided by the Bank, whose decision shall be final, conclusive and binding on the Contractor.

The Bank may also require that the Contractor should get the quality and quantity of material used by him, and the jobs completed / executed by him, certified by an official of the Bank, before the bills related to those items/ jobs are paid by the Bank.

18.2. Powers to Vary or Omit Work

No alterations, amendments, omissions, additions, suspensions or variations of the work (hereinafter referred to as variation) under the contract shall be made by the successful bidder except as directed in writing by Bank. The Bank shall have full powers, subject to the provision herein after contained, from time to time during the execution of the contract, by notice in writing to instruct the successful bidder to make any variation and be bound by the same conditions as far as applicable as though the said variations occurred in the contract documents. If any suggested variations would, in the opinion of the finally selected bidders, if carried out, prevent him from fulfilling any of his obligations under the contract, he shall instruct the successful bidder to make such other modified variation without prejudice to the contract. The finally selected bidders shall carry out such variation and be bound by the same conditions as far as applicable as though the said variations occurred in the contract documents. If Bank confirms its instructions, the successful bidder’s obligations shall be modified to such an extent as may be mutually agreed, if such variation is substantial and involves considerable extra cost.
Any agreed difference en cost occasioned by such variation shall be added to or deducted from the contract price as the case may be.

In any case in which the successful bidders has received instructions from Bank as to the requirement of carrying out the altered or additional substituted work which either then or later on, will in the opinion of the finally selected bidders, involve a claim for additional payments, such additional payments shall be mutually agreed in line with the terms and conditions of the order.

If any change in the work is likely to result in reduction in cost, the parties shall agree in writing so as to the extent of change in contract price, before the finally selected bidder(s) proceeds with the change. In all the above cases, in the event of a disagreement as to the reasonableness of the said sum, the decision of Bank shall prevail.
